

Senior Guro Zoltán Turek

began with his martial arts training in 1984. First, he started with Judo and later, he began to train Kyokushinkai Karate for several years.

At the same time he also trained a lot with Tonfas, Nunchakus and the Balison knives as well as firearm training (pistol CO and air), throwing knives and archery.

In 2002 he started to learn Modern Arnis unter Hegyi György, who was a student of GM Hans Karrer 8th Dan from Ulm.

With the support of Hans Karrer and Hegyi György, between 2007 and in 2009 he took over the management of the Hungarian Modern Arnis Group.

In 2017, Zoltán Turek passed the exam for the 4th Dan in the DAV.

He teaches Modern Arnis in the town of Mosonmagyaróvár and village of Kímle for children and adults.

All members of the Hungarian group are also members of the DAV.

For 10 years, Zoltán Turek has been organizing a Modern Arnis Camp once a year, to which GM Hans Karrer arrives and teaches.

For many years he is also organizing a long weekend with special black belt training with GM Hans Karrer in Hungary.

Here are the exams of Zoltán Turek

2007 – 1st Dan Eislingen

2009 – 2nd Dan München

2013 – 3rd Dan Karlsruhe

2017 – 4th Dan Karlsruhe

2013 – Examiner license for Hungary

We are very happy, that Zoltán Turek will teach at the DAV Europe Seminar!
